MONOTARY SETTLEMENT AGREED JUDGMENT $ 10 million one hundred thousand owed by the CITY OF PHILADELPHIA AND ITS ESQUIRES /EMPLOYEES

SUBJECT MATTER

Breach of duty, performance and obligation under INTERNATIONAL LAW
Governing admiralty maritime contracts title 9 sections 1,2,3,13 201 202,203,301 &304 not limited to title 28 sections 1331,1332&1333 ,the courts and its esquires dba judges are one under corpus juris secundum 7 section 4 both parties are equally liable jointly For not carrying out the contracts to the letter as filed and stipulated adminstrator of justice sleet failed to do three simple things in the satisfaction of the execution of the terms of contract.

1. He filed the case as a civil action when in fact it is an arbitration settlement already decided between the claimant James Coppedge and the CITY OF PHILADELPHIA (affidavit of monetary stipulation)I specified in several documentations see exhibit this fact which was ignored by Mr sleet.

2 Mr sleet failed to issue a permanent injunctive order to restrain the defendants from numerous criminal /civil tortuous interferences a week with having knowledge of these numerous wrong doings

3 Mr sleet failed to enforce the tele- conference DATES 1-22-08 & 2-12-08 hold him and the courts accountable as stipulated in the irrevocable default stipulation terms which would have settled the matter months ago if not for his omissions

Re: Coppedge v. City of Philadelphia, Case No. 1:07-cv-00684-*-MPT

Coppedge v. Leatherman, Case No. 1:07-cv-00763-*-MPT

Dear Judge Thyng:

This firm represents the defendants in the above-captioned actions. We write today to request a brief continuance of the scheduling teleconference currently set for January 22, 2008 at 10 a.m. so that I can participate in the teleconference.

I am scheduled to be out of the state from January 17 to January 28, and accordingly, will not be able to take part in the teleconference if it proceeds on January 22, 2008. I should be in a position to participate in such a teleconference the rest of the week of January 28, 2008, or any date thereafter that is convenient to the Court and counsel.

Prior to sending this letter, we attempted to inform the Plaintiff of our need for a continuance and request his consent. As I understand it, we have not been able to reach him but wanted to raise this issue before the Court as soon as practicable.

Of course, we are available to discuss this request at the Court's convenience.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Michael R. Robinson", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Re: Incident: 3637 N. 21st St., August 5, 2008 at 7:30 a.m.
My File No.: 421938

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing on behalf of James Coppedge, the owner of a rooming house at 3637 N. 21st St., Philadelphia. On August 5, 2008, at approximately 7:30 am, officers from your district, and perhaps also from the 39th district, forcibly entered the rooming house. They told the manager on duty, Jamilla Owens, that they had a warrant to arrest a particular person. Ms. Owens told the officers that the man they were seeking does not reside in the rooming house. She further told the officers that the facility has only recently re-opened and that all the residents are new to the facility.

The officers insisted on obtaining access to a room on the second floor which was locked. Ms. Owens told the officers that no one lives in the room and that she doesn't have a key to the room. The officers nevertheless kicked the door in, causing damage to the door and the frame. As Ms. Owens had explained, the room clearly was unoccupied.

The officers did not give Ms. Owens a copy of the arrest warrant. They also did not give her a business card or any other contact information. Mr. Coppedge was required to call several different police districts and several different offices within the districts, in order to reach any with knowledge of the search and entry.

Ultimately Mr. Coppedge was connected to a Sgt. Corbin, who refused to give his full name. Sgt. Corbin would not tell Mr. Coppedge the name of the man they had been seeking. Sgt. Corbin did mention that the police had entered Mr. Coppedge's property by mistake.

Mr. Coppedge's building has sustained physical damage as a result of the improper search and entry. Also, the manager who was on duty and the residents of the facility were shaken by the incident, and their distress could have a lasting impact on Mr. Coppedge's business.

Accordingly, Mr. Coppedge requests that you investigate this incident and send him a written response including the following:

- a copy of the arrest warrant;
- an explanation as to why the police conducted an early morning search and entry at the wrong address, particularly where the manager on duty assured them that they were at the wrong location; and
- the name, address, and phone number of the person and department with whom he may file a claim for damages.

Please send your response directly to Mr. Coppedge at his post office box listed below.

Very truly yours,

WELCH, GOLD & SIEGEL, P.C.
